Nimiipuu Protecting the Environment Youth Salmon Summit.

We hope you will be able to join us August 8-10th at Hells Gate State Park in Lewiston, ID. The Summit will bring together roughly 75 Snake River youth organizers and Tribal youth from across the region to participate in workshops, small group discussions, story telling, and more. The central themes of the Summit include environmental justice, climate action, and artistic action. Please consider this opportunity to individually and collectively grow our leadership efforts while connecting with fellow salmon/environmental justice advocates.

If you'd like to register for this summit, please register here by August 1st. Food will be provided throughout the Summit and tent site spaces are reserved for the night of August 8th and 9th. Camping gear, however, will not be provided. There are opportunities for travel expenses to be subsidized and carpooling to be arranged.
